The image displays a musical score for Fugue No. 2 in 3 voices in C Minor, BWV 847 by Johann Sebastian Bach. The score is written for piano and includes fingerings and articulations. The notation is in C minor, with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and a common time signature (C). The score is divided into five systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The first system starts with a treble staff containing a whole rest and a bass staff with a sequence of eighth notes. The second system continues the bass staff and introduces a treble staff with a sequence of eighth notes. The third system continues both staves with complex rhythmic patterns. The fourth system continues the piece, showing more intricate fingerings. The fifth system concludes the visible portion of the score with a final cadence. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1-5 above or below notes. Articulations like slurs and accents are used throughout. Some notes have blue text above them, possibly indicating specific fingering or articulation instructions. The score is presented in a clear, professional layout with a white background and black notation.
